The Mayville Street
characters
were drawn by
an ex Mayville
Pupil in 2006.

Can you draw
a character for Mayville Street.

Give them a
name and tell us something interesting
about them.

Mayville Street

Is there a situation in your life you don't know how to deal with or would like help with.
Describe in about 30 words your situation. Include anything you may have already tried.

Have a think about what would be the best way to fix the situation or how changes could be made.

Include your name and class and post it in the Mayville Street boxes found outside the mentoring room, library and school office and we'll be in touch with some advice to help you deal with the issue.

Black History Month

Celebrate Black History Month with your children this October, and spend some extra time learning about the accomplishments of famous and lesser-known African-Americans.

Download printables and colouring pages for your children, take quizzes, find activities, and read articles about the historic struggle for civil rights.

Buck O'Neil (1911-2006)

Buck O'Neil is a true baseball legend. After a distinguished playing career with the Kansas City Monarchs in the Negro Leagues, O'Neil went on to become a scout for the Chicago Cubs. In 1962 he became the first black coach in Major League Baseball, also for the Cubs. O'Neil died in 2006, and today is honored with the red-colored "Buck O'Neil legacy seat," located behind home plate in Kansas City's Kauffman Stadium.

Jack Roosevelt "Jackie" Robinson

(January 31, 1919 – October 24, 1972) was an American baseball player who became the first African American to play in Major League Baseball (MLB) in the modern era. Robinson broke the baseball colour line when the Brooklyn Dodgers started him at first base on April 15, 1947. As the first major league team to play a black man since the 1880s, the Dodgers ended racial segregation that had relegated black players to the Negro leagues for six decades.
